

I am very concerned about the easing of current restrictions with regards to this issue. I fear what it means for consumers in particular and democracy in general, when one media source can control numerous media markets. Please continue to protect consumers from media monopoly!